

Australia and New Zealand Members/Subscribers

Description

Since 1888, National Geographic have travelled the Earth, sharing its amazing stories with each new generation. Their Mission Programmes support critical expeditions and scientific fieldwork, encourage geography education for students, promote natural and cultural conservation and inspire audiences through new media, vibrant exhibitions and live events.

The Australian and New Zealand members of the National Geographic Society receive the English Language Edition of the National Geographic Magazine as a benefit of membership. Magazine articles cover the various parts of the globe and probe into the farthest reaches of the universe and hitherto unexplored depths of the oceans. It reports on the issues that face the world today, including energy and the environment. Scientific articles range from such subjects as the discovery of fossils of the earliest man to the wonders of the electronic chip and new biology.

This is a highly educated, loyal and affluent audience. National Geographic members have above average household incomes and a high percentage hold senior professional and managerial positions.

National Geographic members are responsive to a wide variety of offers including travel, finance, charity, luxury goods, mail order and automotive.
